For the prevention and cure
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.

"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex; to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

GOOD FRIDAY.

[This day, by the greater part of the Christian world, is consecrated by solemn religious services in commemoration of the sufferings of the Redeemer of man. We are confident that a portion of our readers will be gratified with the following hymn, (not original) which is furnished by one who we believe is, according to the strictest definition of the term, a CHRISTIAN.]—Editor.

HYMN, FOR GOOD FRIDAY.

Why veil'd, O Sun! where fled thy light?
Thy day absorb'd in gloom of night;
Has thy Creator quench'd his fires?
Or dost thou mourn while HE expires?

Ah, heathen sage,* thy worship'd sun,
Nor moon, nor stars, that round him run,
Nor science lucid as their spheres,
Can solve thy doubts, or calm thy fears.

On Calvary, behold the cause,
Why nature breaks her wonted laws,
And frowns in wrath on fallen man,
While God reveals his mercy's plan.

The veil is rent—earth's caverns quake;
The rocks are cleft—the dead awake,
While Jesus, His incarnate son,
In dying anguish, cries "'tis done"

"'Tis done." O man! the heavens resound;
The way to life for you is found;
And ye like Him, who dies to save,
Shall conquer death and burst the grave!

* A heathen philosopher, on observing the phenomenon, and knowing that it could not be an eclipse, observed, that the God of nature suffered, or the world was coming to an end.

From the New York Chronicle.

GENUINE RELIGION,

Under whatever badge it appears, is in a more flourishing condition than at any former period. The numerous societies for distributing the scriptures and encouraging morality in our state, find their laudable exertions crowned with unhoped for success. The knowledge of God is rapidly covering the earth as the waters cover the sea; sectarian prejudices are melting away in the pure sunshine of gospel liberty, and we now witness the dawning of that happy period, when "there shall be one lord and his name one," throughout the habitable globe.

AGRICULTURE is a subject which has excited the attention of every scientific mind, since our present chief Magistrate awakened us to its importance. Arrangements are making to form societies, in different parts of the state, for its promotion—liberal contributions and donations are anticipated, and we have no doubt of the ultimate success and utility of such institutions.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT, are progressing with a rapidity hitherto unknown in this country. The eyes of our citizens are at length opened to the importance of such enterprises and no "honorable or judicious man doubts" of the final consummation of that union which is contemplated between the Atlantic and Lake Erie.

COMMERCE is flourishing; the arts are encouraged—enterprise is successful and the people are happy. Plenty crowns our boards; health blooms around us, and pleasure sparkles in our cups. Let HEAVEN receive the praise, and a due share of honor be bestowed on the earthly instruments which have been employed in effecting this happy state of affairs, a free Constitution, patriotic Executives, and independent Legislators.

Dr. Clarke says, the modern laws of Cos do not reward female chastity, but they discountenance in a very singular manner, any cruelties in females towards their admirers. An instance occurred while our traveller was in the island, in which the fatal determination of a love affair occasioned a trial for what the Mahommedan lawyers describe as "homicide by an intermediate cause." The case was as follows:

"A young man, desperately in love with a girl of Stancillo eagerly sought to marry her; but his proposals were rejected. In consequence he destroyed himself by poison. The Turkish police arrested the father of the obdurate fair, and tried him for culpable homicide—If the accused, (argued they) with becoming gravity, had not had a daughter, the deceased would not have fallen in love, consequently he would not have been disappointed, consequently he would not have swallowed poison, consequently he would not die—but he (the accused) had a daughter, and the deceased had fallen in love, &c. Do we all these causes, he was called upon to pay the price of the young man's life; and this, being fixed at the sum of 80 piastres, was accordingly exacted."

ALEXANDRIA:
TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 31.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday Evening, March 28.

The debate on Mr. Clay's motion of amendment to the appropriation bill was closed this day with a decided negative of that proposition—if 150 votes against 45 will be allowed to be decisive. And to speak my mind, I am surprised, and indeed sorry, that the minority was so large, and that there should be even forty-five members in favor of a proposition to which there was a multitude of valid objections, and not one—no, not one even colorable inducement. Had it passed, the Patriots of South America could gain nothing by it, nor obtain any one aid, advantage or supply in consequence of it, to which they are not equally entitled without it. Unless indeed it would have had the effect of producing a declaration of war, which Mr. Clay disclaimed all desire for, and which, therefore, I cannot allow myself to ascribe to his policy in the proposition.

It has puzzled some speculators to come to a rational conjecture why a measure of this kind should have been dragged by the neck and heels into an appropriation bill, of all things. On what grounds of urgency it was that statesmen who understand the constitution should have endeavored to trample down its fences by calling on the legislative branch to usurp the power which that constitution has assigned to the executive, without even the pretence of default on the part of the latter.—Why they should have endeavored to precipitate a great, an important, and who can tell now hazardous a measure, for the execution of which the president had already, by sending agents of inquiry to South America, been preparing the way, if that inquiry should be found to favor it. Did I not know that no undue political project could enter into the heads of those gentlemen—"for Brutus is an honorable man; and they are all—all honorable men," I might have feared that some would so far be deceived as to suspect that anticipating an unfavorable report from our agents on the mission, they wished to have a favorite step taken that would not pass if the truth were known, and that could not be recalled when that truth came to be unfolded; but that could not be. No matter, however—the attempt has been abortive. Our country is nothing the worse, save a week's time and compensation to members of congress, for its having been made; and the Patriots are not a whit the worse for its being defeated.

If a war with Spain were the object of those gentlemen, there existed still less ground for them to stand upon—since every thing that has lately passed indicates a sufficiently firm though temperate disposition on the part of the other branches of the government to resort to all measures of that tendency which the culpable conduct of Spain may render necessary. The executive has occupied Florida, and thus he has put into the hands of the country a pledge for the settlement of all accounts with Spain. The report of the senate on the case of Mr. Meade is as firm and unequivocal as it is possible for words to make it. It is therefore inconceivable how statesmen of the sagacity of Mr. Clay and his friends could have wished the adoption of a measure which, in the contest that will probably take place, would shove us from honorable high ground of moral right, and place us upon ground of dubious rectitude, and furnish the knavish casuists of Ferdinand's cabinet with plausible pretences for throwing the whole blame of the war upon the turbulence, the cupidity, or the unprincipled ambition of the United States. Proceeding as our executive has done, we place Ferdinand shamefully in the wrong; and those who believe in God will have the consolation to think that, be the event of the war what it may, we may safely appeal to Heaven for the justice of our cause. Nor is it certain that in case of a war our government may not occasionally have cause to rejoice in being able to demonstrate to the people that they have left nothing unattempted consistent with honor to avoid it. Since, though of the result with respect to Spain there can scarcely be a doubt, there is almost as little doubt that this country and people will suffer pretty smartly in its commerce and its carrying trade, as England will remain neuter and ingulf the whole for a score of years at least.

We learn from Providence, that Capt. Heath, late of the Marines, arrived there on Saturday last, with a friend and Surgeon, from the South—when it being suspected that their business was to challenge Com. Perry, an express went off to Newport to acquaint the municipal authorities thereof. When the second arrived he was arrested, and the challenge to Com P found on him. Information was immediately sent back to Providence, when Captain H. was cited before the Supreme Court then in session.

Milledgeville, March 17.

For some days a most painful anxiety has been felt for the fate of Major Gen. Gaines. It is now positively ascertained that the General is safe, though some of those who were with him are lost.—In consequence of information from Fort Scott, that the commanding officer intended to evacuate it, being scarce of provisions, Gen. Gaines, to prevent a measure so disastrous, started with a few others in a boat from Fort Early to descend the river to Fort Scott. In the night, when about 40 miles distant from the latter place, the boat was upset; the General, Major Nix and some of the men escaped; Major Wright (aid to the general) and four men, are stated to have been drowned. Gen. Gaines and those who reached the shore with him are understood to have fallen in with the Georgia detachment on its march, near Fort Scott.

From the N. Y. Com. Adver. March 26.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival last evening of the ship Pacific, captain Williams, in 48 days from Liverpool, we received from our London correspondent a Lloyd's List of the 30th of January, and the General Shipping and Commercial Lists to the 1st of February. We were also obligingly favored by Mr. William Wright, one of the owners of the Pacific, with London papers to the 1st of February, and Liverpool to the 4th.

A bill for repealing the suspension of the Habeas Corpus act, which had passed in the House of Lords, was brought down to the House of Commons on the 29th of January. The chancellor of the exchequer stated "that it would perhaps be more convenient for both parties to reserve any observations which they might wish to make on any subject connected with the suspension of the Habeas Corpus to a future day. On Monday, the 2d of February, a communication would be made to them of certain papers calculated to throw light on the state of the country. He trusted that whatever differences of opinion they might have with respect to the necessity for the suspension, or the manner in which the powers given to ministers were exercised, there could be but one opinion among them respecting the propriety of passing the repeal through the house with as little delay as possible. It was his intention, therefore, to propose that the house should depart from their usual practice, and pass the bill through all its stages that day." This course was pursued, and the bill was adopted and returned to the House of Lords on the same day without amendment; and on the 31st it received the royal sanction.

In reply to a question from a member, as to the expected resumption of specie payments by the Bank of England the chancellor of the exchequer stated to the House of Commons, "that he had the satisfaction of knowing that the bank had made ample preparations for resuming its payments in cash at the period fixed by parliament. He could at the same time add, that he knew of nothing either in the internal state of the country, or in its political relations with foreign powers, which would render it expedient to continue the restriction beyond that period. It is well known, however, that financial measures and pecuniary arrangements were in a course of proceeding amongst foreign powers, of such a nature as might, by possibility, make it a question for the consideration of parliament, whether the restriction ought to be further continued whilst the immediate effects of such arrangements should be in operation."

That our ports will open on the 15th next month, there can be now no question. The average returns of the first three weeks being 87-6; second 87;—third 85 10; whether they will continue open during the following quarter is a point about which we cannot at this distance give any confident opinion. The probability to us, however, seem to be in favor of their remaining open.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

We have received our London files to the 4th February, and Liverpool papers to the 6th, by the Triton, arrived yesterday.

The London papers are filled with proceedings of the British parliament.

A bill to repeal the law for suspending the Habeas Corpus act passed the Lords the 28th and the Commons the 29th Jan. In the discussion the Attorney Gen. said, he should move the Court of King's Bench to discharge all recognizances under the law. They have all been discharged.

Votes of condolence to the Queen, and Prince Leopold, passed both Houses.—In the commons that to the queen was dissented to by Messrs. Calcraft and Taylor.

Sir Francis Burdett had presented several petitions for a Parliamentary Reform.

On the 3d Feb the Prince Regent presented numerous papers to Parliament, relating to the internal state of the country, in a sealed green bag. (Papers thus communicated are confidential, and are always referred to a secret committee.)

Lord Stanhope, an opposition Peer, in a debate said, he heard with great pain a report, that the allied troops were to be withdrawn from France. He said he had strong fears of the effect of such a measure in France. Lord Liverpool, in reply, said his Lordship's fears were groundless.

The Duke of Wellington after a short visit to England, returned to Paris the 1st Feb. with his lady and staff.—He is charged with an important mission respecting the private pecuniary demands on France. Some late discussions at Paris are said to have satisfied the Allied Sovereigns that they cannot safely withdraw nor diminish their army in France.

Paris accounts say, that all the points of a treaty for the dislocation of the Allied Army in France had been agreed on.

A great European Army was to be kept up at Frankfort to maintain the peace of Europe.

Mr. Wyatt, the Architect, had finished the plan of the Duke of Wellington's new palace.

The papers express great gratitude for the Newfoundland subscriptions in Boston, N. York, &c. Liberal subscriptions to the same object had been made in London.

Another reduction of the price of bread had been made in Paris.

The army, peace establishment, of France, is fixed at 240,000 men.

Count Lanjuhais, has announced his intention to move for the recal of all Frenchmen banished without trial, to choose to submit to a trial.

The Algerines have no less than nine picaroons in full cruize in the Mediterranean, and seven near the entrance of the Straights.

A new sect has sprung up in Switzerland, whose doctrine is a compound of moderate Mahometism, English Methodism and German Quietism.

Sir Gregor M'Gregor had arrived in England.

All American events and incidents are published with great particularity in the London papers.

Mr. Vansittart had announced, that he means to pay off the loan of six millions from the Bank.

The French Chamber of Deputies had taken it in high dudgeon, that the spectators in the galleries applauded a speech of the Minister of War, Marshal Gouvion St. Cir, on the subject of enlisting for the army.

From the Boston Patriot.

The London Courier of the 2d in speaking of American Affairs, again indulges in its former degrading acrimony. Speaking of the occupation of Amelia Island, it says—"Amelia Island was taken possession of by the United States troops on the 24th, Dec. Com. Aury wrote a letter to the American officer, in which he not unsuccessfully questioned the right of the American government to occupy the Island, and expressed his surprise, that a nation which so recently established its own independence should obstruct others in the pursuit of the same object. This is, at least, fair language between Republicans, who, we think, should not be very fastidious about their associates. We have heard no outcries yet from the journals in this country which affect to advocate the Universal rights of mankind at the proceedings of America. We need not hint at the exclamations of horror with which we should have been assailed, had a legitimate government, that is, a regal government, occupied a territory as a measure of precaution. But Republics, in the opinion of these publicists, are privileged to "commit the oldest sins the newest kind of ways."

Speaking of the occupation of Amelia, and the publication of the secret Journal of Congress, the London Star, of Feb. 3, says—"The north American system seems to require, at this time, some official elucidation, and if we mistake not very greatly, it will not be long that one or more of the governments of Europe will be able to avoid demanding some satisfactory explanation. Britain has precisely the same right to occupy Amelia Island at this moment, that the United States had on the 24th December last.

It is said to be the intention of the Grand Seignior to confirm the election of the new Bey of Algiers although he had been raised to that dignity by rebellion.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry. Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases:

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

"THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard,

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
